THE LEGEND S DAUGHTER: IDAHO STORIES (PAPERBACK)

Torrey House Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 201 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A 15 Bytes 2014 Book Award Winner In this exceptional collection of stories set mostly in Idaho in the deep backwoods along river banks and lonely county roads, Kranes characters are all thrown out of their comfort zones. And so is the reader. Richly drawn and complex, these stories challenge the intellect. Kranes has managed to somehow dam the river of souls these stories possess. They do not lie still, however, between the covers but rather spin in far-reaching whirlpools of genuine humanity and mortality. -- 15 Bytes There s something to be said about a writer whose style is easily recognized, whose voice stands out, whose stories are readily identified. What s remarkable about David Kranes s writing and these stories, though, is that each story stands out on its own merit, while every story is well crafted and conceived. Nothing one-dimensional about his people, nothing one dimensional about his prose, either. -- ForeWord Reviews From rainbow trout jumping in the Salmon River to watering holes on the edge of McCall Lake, each of the ten stories in author and playwright David Kranes s The Legend s Daughter transports the reader to the wilderness of Eastern Idaho. While Kranes renders a common setting in each story, the collection is not simply a detailed portrait of Idaho, but an examination of the lives of restless people seeking to escape from their lives and find peace. -- ZYZZYVA The Legend s Daughter is a story collection of real people struggling with identity, with love, with time, rooted in the rugged and indifferent beauty of Idaho where each character finds his or her mirror in water, in stone, in place. David Kranes...
