Tate Publishing & Enterprises. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 156 pages. Dimensions: 8.1in. x 5.2in. x 0.4in. You will join the younger son writing his memoirs and hear him give his own answers to questions like, Why did you do it? What were the forces that drove you to demand your father to give you your inheritance immediately, even though he was still living? Spanning from his early years to his adulthood, this son tells the story of an increasingly dysfunctional family. His is a tale of secret hatred, of a father's grief, of murder and betrayal, of alienation and heartache, and of a young man's dream to escape to a better place, a decision that ultimately tears a family apart. The Gathering Storm will carry you along through all the peaks and valleys of his journey, from a childhood of wealth and privilege to young manhood, and discover what caused him to become the Prodigal Son. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
