Paul Dry Books, Inc, United States, 2001. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 2nd Revised edition. 211 x 135 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Edith Bruck tells the story of the Lager with the inherent strength of a wounded animal and in confronting the unbearable sadness of it closes the account and does not surrender to the void Unforgettable testimony. Primo Levi With a style both warm and spare, Edith Bruck recreates the hardships of her existence as a Jewish child in Hungary before the Holocaust, the horrors of her time in the camps, and the protracted pain and disorientation of her lonely return to normal life after the war. Her readers will marvel at her ability to perceive good as well as evil in those who preyed upon her. This is a beautiful book. Susan Zuccotti, author of The Italians and the Holocaust Passover, 1944. Edith Bruck s family sits in a darkened kitchen isolated from the other villagers by the black cloth on the window, their poverty, and their Judaism. Her mother explains that the Germans have reached their Hungarian village that they will soon have to endure more than the cries of Jewstink and the deprivations that have been their lot for months. The next morning twelve-year-old Edith is roused by shouts of Wake up! Outside! Quickly! I give you five minutes, you animals! In this memoir, Bruck tells the story of her imprisonment in Auschwitz, Dachau, and Bergen-Belsen. She and her older sister endure almost untellable horrors, and hunger so savage that the author tells of ripping bread from another s teeth. The end of the war brings freedom but little security. With no parents and no home, she moves from country to country, from household to household, and from relationship to relationship. In search of...
