MORTON, State Agent in Charge of Club Work. potato dSrotmng The purpose of this bulletin is to describe in simple terms the various operations and methods which, if carefully followed, with weather conditions at all favorable, ought to produce a prizewinning crop. The various steps in growing the crop are taken up in the order in which they come during the growing season. IMPORTANCE OF THE POTATO CROP IN MASSACHUSETTS There are several reasons why the potato crop should receive a great deal of attention in this state, and particularly from boys and girls in the Agricultural Clubs. First: The potato is of great interest to us historically. It is one of the few crops that is native to America. This crop was not known in European countries before Sir Walter Raleigh and Sir Francis Drake made their visits here. These explorers-took the potato back to Europe...
