I seem to bear In Autumns funeral train. 106 THE GOLDEN HAND. Lo, from the citys heat and dust A Golden Hand forever thrust, Uplifting from a spire on high A shining finger in the sky! I see it when the morning brings Fresh tides of life to living things, And the great world awakes: behold, That lifted Hand in morning gold! I see it when the noontide beats Pulses of fire in busy streets; The dust flies in the flaming air: Above, that quiet Hand is there. I see it when the twilight clings To the dark earth with hovering wings Flashing with the last fluttering ray, That Golden Hand remembers day. THE GOLDEN HAND. The midnight comes--the holy hour; The city like a giant flower Sleeps full of dew: that Hand, in light Of moon and stars, how weirdly bright! Below, in...
