Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from What s the Fare to Argyleville? Dear Guy: Every time I begin to write I feel plumb tired and out of peptimism, so I waited until tonight before answering your Epistle No. 2023 or thereabouts. It was so good I didn t need my dinner that day but ate it just the same. I am laboring under the opinion that the Torrid Zone has been extended to up here by the Parcels Post Department - it is so sizzlingly hot the grease melts from me like lava from a volcano s side. I could eat a whole iceberg if any was for sale. I camped near the Brown ice house one evening but had to evacuate the next morning on account of the flood caused by my presence. So betimes I am using patent hair restorers for their cooling effect. My flivver ran away the other day. I don t know what got into its head, but seems like it was out for a spree by itself. I couldn t stop it; if I tried...
