Norma E. Peterson. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 240 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. The Gatekeeper is an inspirational story about the power of love, set in a world of fantasy and adventure. Patience was an ordinary African American teenager, but she must embrace physical transformation into the thing she fears most in order to save a world that she despises even more than the one she ran away from. Suddenly finding herself lost in the mystical world of Mbaba, Patience must put into practice everything that she learned over the years, in order to save herself, her family, and the world itself from a terrifying threat. The moral of the story is a powerful one: love can conquer all, and even unite a broken family against all the odds. It features a blend of spirituality, fantasy, adventure, and love that should appeal to people who prescribe to the teachings of Deepak Chopra, Eckhart Tolle, and Dr. Dwayne Dyer, as well as Christians the world over. Ten years ago I had a remarkable dream I dreamt of a remarkable teenage girl named Patience Robinson. I had no idea that a dream of a girls journey on a plantation she was raised on would translate into my lifelong quest to learn how to . . . live. All of us know about hardships, pain, laughter and sorrow we often view our lifes triumphs or failures as personal or spiritual lessons. I never imagined that the life of Patience and her family could impact mine so profoundly. The past ten years have been incredible in that once Patience got into my head her life merged with mine and her story became mylife. I believe that I was gifted this story to become empowered to survive the tremendous personal challenges as well as...
