Excerpt from Observations: On Wounds, and Their Complications by Erysipelas, Gangrene and Tetanus and on the Principal Diseases and Injuries of the Head, Ear and Eye In reply to those who, conversant with the writings and literary labours of the Baron Larrey, are desirous to learn when he composed the work before the reader, on the Diseases and Injuries of the Head, it is proper to state that it constitutes the first volume of the Barons latest work, entitled Clinique Chirurgicale, Paris, 1829 - 1830. As the personal friend of Napoleon, he enjoyed the privilege of accompanying him upon all his principal expeditions and campaigns, from the earliest dawn of his effulgent career to his downfall, which our author himself politically survived; being subsequently retained by the ruling powers - a rare tribute paid to genuine merit without distinction of party - as surgeon in chief to the great military hospital of the royal guards.
