What theme could I select which would be worthy of the grim virtues of your great ancestors? What song of praise could I sing that had not been sung before? What story could I tell which was not a thrice told tale ? And as I pondered, my confusion was not diminished as I thought of the trials and dangers and famines of that first awful winter. I seemed to hear the exultant shouts of cruel red men, and my heart was rent with the piercing screams of their writhing victims; and then anon there came a whiff of scorching flesh as the flames lapped round the limbs of burning witches, and my ear grew dull and my eyelids drooped as I listened to dialectic sermons of intolerable length.
