Among the rank and file employees in the two cities the voluntary vacations are rarely taken unless the individual's health or some other emergency demands it. The average of the voluntary vacation in a year for the 28 saleswomen is 1.3 weeks. If the 13 weeks that one girl spent at the bedside of a sick relative in a neighboring State is omitted, the average is less than 0.9 of a week. The character of the employment precludes any very great loss from involuntary vacations. The force taken on at the holiday season is usually laid off by the 1st of January, but this extra force is not drawn from the ranks of the regular workers as a rule. There is a tendency to keep a smaller force during the summer months. A few of the high-grade stores allow...
